Senate Marks Time, President's Message Delayed, As House Rows Over Speakership

Broadsides Fired At Modernists In Religion

NEW YORK, December 4.—(By the Associated Press)—Firing gun after gun at the so-called "modernists" in religion and its leaders, Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick and President W. H. P. Faunce, of Brown University, the Baptist fundamentalists today entered the third day of their series of anti-modernist meetings.

Standing firmly for a literal interpretation of the Bible, Dr. William F. Pettingill, dean of the Baptist Bible school in Philadelphia, and Dr. T. T. Shields, of Toronto, president of the Baptist Union of North America, yesterday branded the modernists as anti-Christian and as enemies of the Christian religion.

Dr. Shields criticized Dr. Fosdick and Dr. Faunce, declaring that their influence could only bring about the development of conditions here such as obtain in Russia. He said the fight between the fundamentalists and modernists was a real war and that fundamentalists should be prepared to be wounded and to die if necessary for their cause. He asserted families might be broken up but that no fundamentalist should surrender to members of his family. Modernists, he said, are reactionists rather than liberals.

Dr. Pettingill outlined three essentials to Christian faith—the belief in the deity of Jesus, in the doctrine of the virgin birth, and in the bodily resurrection. He said there could be no compromise with those who denied these things.

Speakers at today's meetings will include Dr. R. E. Nelson, of Florida, O. who is to talk on "Heterodox Tendencies Intolerable to True Baptists."

Diver Attacked By Octopus

Toulon, France, December 4.—(By the Associated Press)—A diver working on the submerged wreck of the French battleship Liberte, was attacked yesterday by a huge octopus, which did not relinquish its manly embrace until the man's comrades had cut it to pieces.

The diver, Jean Negri, fought desperately with the monster under water for some time. He was finally able to free one arm and plunged his fist into the body of the creature. The octopus, however, held fast, whereupon Negri gave the signal to be hauled up. When his companions saw the writhing monster emerge, they were panic-stricken, but the plight of their comrade appeared so serious that they went to his aid and freed him with their knives.

Missing Child Believed Kidnapped By Moron

CHICAGO, December 4.—(By the Associated Press)—After more than thirty hours of search, the police have concluded that twelve-year-old Rose Borth, who disappeared Sunday after she had been sent for groceries, had been kidnapped by a moron.

The police say they are seeking a self-styled "celestial angel and heavenly father" as the possible kidnaper. They say he is described in criminal records as a moron and maniac. He is said to have escaped recently from a state hospital for the insane at Elgin, where he was sent after conviction for attacking children in his religious cult under guise of performing a religious ceremony.

Search for the girl was begun when the police noticed the similarity of his methods and the conditions surrounding Rose's disappearance.

"I'm going to be confirmed tonight," Rose is said to have told the grocer in her last recorded statement. None of her family or friends except her seven-year-old brother knew of any planned confirmation. "A man asked her a few days ago if she wanted to be confirmed," the child said.

The abduction theory was strengthened when two other girls told the police they had been approached by a man answering the description of the alleged kidnapper of Rose.

COLUMBUS, O., December 4.—(By the Associated Press)—Dr. Joseph J. Boone, of Mt. Victory, Harding county, must pay a fine of $100 imposed by the court of common pleas for violating the prohibition laws, the state supreme court held today in affirming his conviction.

Dr. Boone had a permit to sell liquor in his drug store for other than beverage purposes. He also owned private bank next door to his drug store and he kept his liquor in the bank vault. The court held that his keeping the liquor in the bank violated his permit to keep it in the drug store.

Coalition Government Hope Of Congress In Solving Deadlock

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—(By the Associated Press)—A coalition government of new line up of conservative from the Republican and Democratic parties as against the radical groups—is the only possible way out of the chaos in which Congress finds itself today.

The legislative program will either be a fizzle due to deadlocks and insurmountable opposition, or a temporary fusion of Democrats and Republicans will be made necessary on major questions. Congress has before it a number of important tasks which ordinarily would occupy the attention of both houses for more than a year. Obviously much of the program will not even be touched but it is too early to be sure of what will be given priority.

At present, the following would seem to be the principal items on the program:

First: The usual appropriation bills. These will provoke many controversies especially since an effort will be made to cut even further the estimates of expenditures by the Executive Department.

Second: Tax revision. There is unanimity on the proposal to reduce taxes of persons of income below $10,000. This cannot be done, however, without providing revenue to take the place of the amounts lost by reducing smaller incomes. To obtain the new revenue, the Treasury declares surtaxes should be cut. The radicals think surtaxes should be retained at the present scale.

and other levies made besides such as excess profits taxes. There is a disposition to increase the rate of inheritance tax.

British 12-Mile Treaty Ready

WASHINGTON, December 4.—(By the Associated Press)—The draft of the British government for the proposed treaty extending the three mile limit to 12 miles, as means of stopping rum running finally has been submitted to Secretary Hughes. The draft was received at the British embassy several days ago, but delivery was held up pending cable exchanges between London and Henry G. Clifton, British charge d'affaires here, regarding negotiations between the United States and Great Britain.

Progressives Maintain Deadlock Thru 8 Ballots; House Adjourns

WASHINGTON, December 4.—(By the Associated Press)—After four more ballots the house adjourned today with the deadlock over election of a speaker, unbroken.

Throughout the session the insurgent Republicans stood by their guns and the four roll calls were almost an exact repetition of the four ballots taken yesterday.

There was much talk of a possible compromise to permit an election tomorrow, but there was no definite action whether compromise negotiations would be successful.

On the eighth ballot the vote was: Garrett, 198; Gillett, 197; Cooper, 17; Madden, 5. Garrett lacked eleven of a majority.

Should the leaders of the Republican organization and of the insurgent group fail to come to terms, President Coolidge will be obliged to abandon his plan for addressing a joint session tomorrow and the whole legislative program of the new congress will remain at a halt.

On the fourth ballot taken today Speaker Gillett, the candidate of the Republican conference, and Representative Garrett, of Tennessee, nominated by the Democrats, ran neck and neck, each less than a dozen votes short of the majority necessary to elect. The seven-member Republican group voted for Representative Cooper, of Wisconsin, yesterday stood solidly behind him in every ballot today while a handful voted for Representative Madden, of Illinois.

On the fifth ballot Gillett and Garrett each received 197 votes, Cooper received 17 and Madden five.

The sixth ballot, Garrett, 197; Gillett, 195; Cooper, 17; Madden, 5. Garrett lacked eleven votes of a majority.

There was no election on the seventh ballot. Seventh ballot: Garrett, 198; Gillett, 196; Cooper, 17; Madden, 5. Garrett lacked eleven votes of a majority.

Meanwhile, the senate, whose leaders maintain it can only meet and adjourn until the house has perfected its organization, held a brief session at which there was no attempt to transact business. Adjournment was taken immediately after the opening prayer and without even a roll call to develop whether a quorum was present.

Senate leaders on both the majority and minority sides, however, were busy with assignments of senators to the standing committees, and with preparations for the fight for senate reorganization which is to come after President Coolidge has delivered his first annual message to congress.

Whether the president will appoint his first cabinet members at a joint session tomorrow also is contingent on a break in the deadlock in the house.

The leaders of the house Republicans have taken the position that they can not consistently discuss any compromise with the insurgent bloc as such, although they said today they were willing to listen to recommendations for changes in committee assignments and in rules—the two points on which the insurgents have placed their attack.

Threat Of Black Hand Followed By Murder

NEW YORK, December 4.—(By the Associated Press)—Dimitrie Maggio, who laughed three weeks ago when he received a letter signed with a scary black hand and demanding money or his life, was shot dead early today in his Brooklyn home after his wife, three children and himself had been chloroformed. Gas masks, the empty chloroform bottle, the murder gun and the two empty cartridges were left by the slayers beside their victim's bed.

Maggio was shot twice. His wife, only semi-conscious from the fumes of the drug that had been sprayed with an atomizer, heard the shots and made a feeble attempt to aid him, but she was felled by a blow on the head. With her children she was taken to a hospital.

Mrs. Maggio had been received she told a story of her husband's enemies that led to the arrest of two suspects. One was released and the other held.

Mrs. Maggio said there were three men in the murder party. They entered through a rear window of the apartment and began spraying the drug. It took immediate effect on the children, but Maggio and his wife were only dazed.

Maggio, who was a cobbler, leaped from his bed after the first shot was fired and attempted to protect himself, but the second bullet finished him. His wife screamed, bringing policemen.

Sentence Must Stand

COLUMBUS, O., December 4.—(By the Associated Press)—W. Clarence O'Brien, of Canton, convicted of manslaughter in the Stark county courts, must serve a sentence in the Ohio penitentiary, the state supreme court today refusing to review his case. O'Brien was convicted of killing Paul Schoner when he ran over him with his automobile.

Schoner, a school teacher of Harrisville, was returning from a dance at a country place with a party of young women and another man in an automobile. When he got a flat tire, Schoner got out of the machine to make repairs and O'Brien dashed by in another machine, striking Schoner and killing him. One of the young women also was injured. O'Brien was alleged to have been intoxicated.

Rowdiness Continues

LONDON, December 4.—(By the Associated Press)—The rowdiness that has marked so many political meetings in the present campaign, beginning up some and interfering with others, gave Winston Spencer Churchill a few anxious moments at Walthamstow last evening when the crowd, in a demonstration against him, smashed the window of his automobile. The police were summoned to rescue Mr. Churchill.

Conservative supporters are reported to have attacked communist hecklers at Sheffield with the result that a free fight occurred. A liberal meeting at Oxford, the newspapers learn, was also broken up.

Most of the candidates seem to be devoting these last days of their strenuous campaign to an appeal for the votes of the women.

Would Provide Election Of Federal Judges

WASHINGTON, December 4.—(By the United Press)—The wave of sentiment aroused in congress by the Craig contempt case crystallized today in decision of the progressive group to introduce a bill in the senate providing for the election of federal judges. This bill will be a foundation on which the program for the liberalization of federal courts will be based. Federal judges are now appointed by the president with confirmation by the senate. The progressives feel the courts should be made sensitive to public opinion and the expressed will of the people. The group will push the bill of Representative Stengel, providing specifically for liberalization for the present contempt laws.

Lawrence Lucas and Stewart Guthrie, alleged ring leaders in the thefts, were ordered committed to the Boys' Industrial School at Lancaster, while the others, Marshall Herschell and Claude Hammond, Robert Stevens and Frank Doss, were made wards of the court and they were required to pay Mr. Thomas the sum of $30 as damage to his property.

WOMAN VICTIM OF ASSAULT: ROBBERY MOTIVE

Whitman Fined; Sent To Jail for 90 Days

When Holly Whitman, proprietor of a soft drink establishment and restaurant at 718 Chillicothe street, appeared in Probate court Tuesday to answer to a charge of contributing to the delinquency of Harry Ricker, 15-years old, son of Thomas Ricker, of New Boston, by furnishing the youth with moonshine liquor, he changed his plea from not guilty to guilty.

After hearing the statement of Ricker, who testified that he and a companion bought half pints of liquor from Whitman, Judge Gilliland sentenced the defendant to three months in jail and ordered him to pay a fine of $100 and costs.

The complaint against Whitman followed on the heels of a story told by the Ricker boy after he was picked up by the police in an intoxicated condition on Chillicothe street, near the Whitman place, at a late hour last Friday night.

Whitman, who was represented by Attorney T. C. Beatty, was taken to the county jail soon after being sentenced. The Ricker boy, who was previously made a ward of the court, was dismissed.

Supreme Court To Hear "Love Injunction" Suit

COLUMBUS, Dec. 4.—The Ohio state supreme court announced today that it will hear the "love injunction" suit recently brought before it on a motion by Fessie L. Sneedaker, Adams county school teacher. Miss Sneedaker seeks to dissolve the injunction obtained against her by Mrs. Grace King who alleges romantic relations between the teacher and Homer King, the husband in the case, threaten their family happiness.

The injunction granted by Adams county courts prevents Miss Sneedaker and King being together in any building and otherwise puts obstacles between them. This sort of thing is illegal especially when no actual criminal act or violation of law is alleged against her in Mrs. King's original petition, Miss Sneedaker declares.

Local Pythians Will Contribute

Members of Magnolia and Poor-less Lodges, Knights of Pythias, are expected to cost between $15,000 and $18,000. The unveiling is scheduled for September of next year. A memorial commission has been appointed to plan for the erection of the statue. This sort of thing is illegal especially when no actual criminal act or violation of law is alleged against her in Mrs. King's original petition, Miss Sneedaker declares.

Grand Jury Is Grinding

The September grand jury, which was reconvened early Monday by Judge Thomas, continued to grind Tuesday when more than forty witnesses appeared before the grand jury to testify in cases under investigation.

From present indication the inquiry will be terminated Wednesday forenoon when the jury is expected to submit its report to the court.

Marconi Plans To Test Control of Radio Waves

LONDON, December 4.—(By the Associated Press)—Signor Marconi said today that within the next few weeks he planned to begin tests between London and New York of his system of projecting radio waves in a desired direction.

"You see that lamp there?" he said, pointing to the electric light over the desk in his office in the Strand. "Its light rays spread all over the room in every direction, but if you put a reflector behind it the rays shoot out in only one direction. That's what we are doing with radio rays. Our experiment is putting a reflector behind them. Heretofore we have been unable to keep radio rays from going through a reflector, but now we finally have got a sort of screen which stops them."

The phrase "sort of screen" was as far as the inventor would go in describing his new appliance, which is erected behind and at the side of the wireless sending apparatus. So far he said he had been able to keep the waves within a radius of two or three degrees dissemination. Instead of three hundred and sixty degrees.

Under the new system, if London were sending to New York, stations in connection would perhaps be able to listen in, but in the words of Signor Marconi, "Spain couldn't, nor could Sweden."

Less power will be required to send radio waves in one direction and therefore transmission costs will be lessened.

Signor Marconi said he contemplated making a trip to the United States during the winter.

Revise Test Of Powers

PARIS, December 4.—(By the Associated Press)—At a conference between Premier Poincare and Louis Barthou, president of the reparations commission, held last evening, a revised text devising the powers of the expert committees which are to investigate Germany's resources and financial assistance was agreed upon. This text is worded in a way in which principles overcome the objections by Secretary Hughes to the participation of the United States.

M. Barthou planned to submit this text to the reparations commission this afternoon and no doubt was expressed that it would be approved.

Says Extradition Is Attempted For Debt; Governor to Decide

COLUMBUS, Dec. 4.—Gov. Donahy is expected to pass tomorrow on an application of Oklahoma authorities for the return to that state of Leverett L. Johnson of Springfield for prosecution on a charge of removing mortgaged property from one county to another without notifying the mortgagee. Young Johnson, who is the son of a prominent negro business man of Springfield, contested extradition. The hearing was held before Gov. Donahy's executive secretary, Thorn, today in the Senate chamber.

Mr. Thorn will present the case to the Governor tomorrow.

Young Johnson is charged with having removed an automobile, which was mortgaged, from Guthrie, Okla., to another town outside the county in connection with a real estate deal. He is fighting extradition on the ground that he is to be returned to Oklahoma to collect a debt and not for punishment. The requisition papers were attacked by his attorneys because they contained no affidavit setting forth that extradition was not desired for collection of debt.

MORE GENERAL USE OF MARGARINE DESIRABLE

Whenever the subject of margarine is mentioned at one of those cozy afternoon parties at which congenial women discuss among themselves those things in which womanhood is interested a lack of correct information and divergence of opinion is at once in evidence.

One woman will pronounce with the utter finality that comes with many years of housekeeping that margarine is most satisfactory both on the table and for cooking. Another will report a preference for margarine exclusively for cooking, while another will favor it only for the table. A fourth will ask, "Who is it that uses margarine?" And so it goes.

The truth is that if more margarine was used it would be better for all concerned; for margarine is a food that carries with it its own guarantee of wholesomeness, is decidedly economical, and in addition can be used satisfactorily on the table and for every shortening purpose.

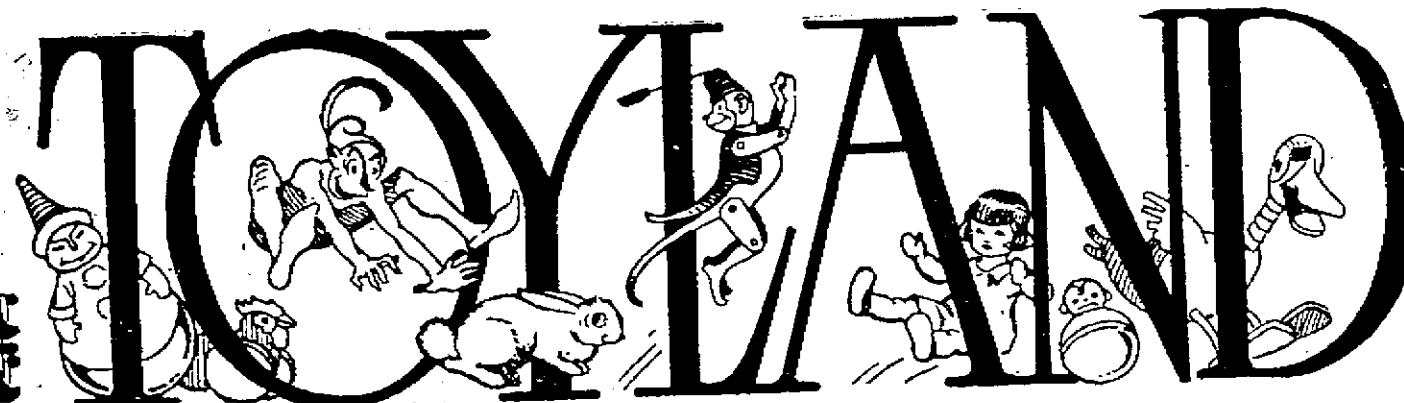

In cooking and when spread on hot toast or hot breads the modern margarine gives an excellent account of itself, and these are the tests that are supposed to try the quality of margarine to the utmost. When placed in a hot spider, margarine melts smoothly and without spattering, when spread on hot toast its color, color, appearance and taste are all that could be desired.

It is the diverse opinions about margarine lies in the fact that during the war many manufacturers of margarine sprang up who had little or no previous experience either with the making or marketing of margarine, with results that anyone could have anticipated.

This situation has since corrected itself by a natural process of elimination. Today the industry is on a fundamentally stable basis of high quality production. The brand that has the largest sale and is most popular with women is the GOOD LUCK brand.

If you have not personally tried the GOOD LUCK in your home and discerned for yourself how advantageous it is for you to use, we suggest that you reach to rely upon hearsay and give GOOD LUCK a personal trial—Advertisement.

Skeleton Reveals

Another Murder

MARTIN'S MURDER, O., Dec. 4 — Uncovering of a skeleton here today, identified as that of Daniel Jones, has brought to light a second murder committed in the month of the killing here in 1920 of Mrs. John Burkhardt and her daughter, officials believe.

Mrs. Burkhardt, who was wealthy, and her daughter were found backed to death in their home. Jones was wanted for the murder of Mike Sullivan, three years ago, who it was charged, had knowledge of the Burkhardt tragedy. It is declared by authorities that Jones was named to murder Sullivan, in order to protect the gang that killed Mrs. Burkhardt and her daughter. Jones in turn, was believed to have been killed to further protect the actual slayers of the woman and girl.

The condition of the skeleton indicated that Jones had been dead about a year. Identification was made by Mrs. John Dillon, with whom the man boarded.

A large amount of money and bonds was taken in the Burkhardt murder, but so far officials have had no success in solving it.

Two Separate Ovens for Coal and Gas. Simple, Safe-Trouble-Proof-Cooking Capacity When Wanted to Feed 20 People

Constructed on the only correct principle: Separate ovens for coal and gas. No dampers. No special flues. With the large gas oven in the most convenient place, and with the coal oven above heated by direct draft. Saves lots of fuel, makes the method of baking in either oven the same. Anyone can operate it. The remarkably small amount of fuel required to operate this range at full capacity cannot be equaled by any other range on the market. Its cooking capacity is equal to many hotel ranges, but takes less space than the smallest cabinet range. When you examine or use this range, and realize its simplicity, and its absolute dependability, you wonder why someone has not thought of this type of construction before. The arrangement of the ovens and flues is quite different from any other range on the market, and so simple that it requires no special instructions to operate. It is always ready for any purpose, and can be depended upon to do the baking and cooking with either coal or gas, efficiently and surely.

Drys Hurl Bombshell Into Ranks of S. Dakota Politicians

PIERRE, S. D., Dec. 4.—(By the A. P.)—South Dakota's political battle lines for the state proposal today were shattered Monday by an eleventh hour bombshell from the Anti-Saloon League, alleging the Ford-Ford movement to be a "smoke screen."

masking a concerted effort of at least four national anti-prohibition organizations to capture delegates to the Democratic national convention.

A statement by the Anti-Saloon League state superintendent, H. E. Dawes of Mitchell, tonight characterized the Ford boom as a "blind" through the "great wet organizations of the country are busy-trying to get wet delegations to the Democratic convention."

The movement has neither Ford consent nor Ford support, Mr. Dawes declared.

Charges Are Denied.

Denial of the charges was made by James F. Houlahan of Watertown, president of the South Dakota Ford-Ford President Club, but the political effect of the statement was discussed everywhere in the pre-convention gatherings.

Harmony conferences between McAdoo and Ford supporters in the Democratic party, and fusion efforts between the Democratic and Farmer-Labor parties were virtually abandoned, while in the Republican ranks the wet issue was thrust to the fore in a manner in which may result in a new alignment of forces before the convention gatherings tomorrow to select presidential and state office candidates for the March primaries.

Want Farmers' Support.

DES MOINES, Ia., Dec. 4.—Iowa sponsors of Henry Ford for the presidency, meeting here today, indicated their efforts would be focused upon gaining the support of the farmers and organized labor in the state.

By permission of the Co-operative Legislative Council of Iowa, an amalgamation of farmers' union and organized labor representatives for political purposes, Francis G. Cutler of Boone, Ia., who called the convention of Ford supporters, went before the council to ask its endorsement of the Ford-Ford President movement.

Only a handful of Ford boosters appeared for today's meeting, but Mr. Cutler declared that Iowa is one of Mr. Ford's strongholds. He ascribed today's sparse attendance to inadequate advertisement of the meeting.

New York's Crime Wave Breaks Out Anew; Many Thefts

NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—New York's crime wave which has ebbed and flowed for a month, Monday assumed more menacing proportions, soon after the police announcement that criminal activities had subsided to such an extent that there was no longer need of extraordinary precautions.

Monday's activities included four safe robberies, an attempted lynch, a daylight holdup and a street shooting. Also three gangsters were arrested, charged with the theft of $16,000 worth of whisky. Seizure of 8,000 cases of Canadian beer, consigned to a Broadway hotel, was another event.

Meanwhile two judges appealed to new grand juries to help court and the police in the speedy administration of justice in criminal cases.

Robberies Are Daring.
Two of four safe robberies, which paid the yeggmen something over $24,000, were particularly daring. One of the city's busiest spots, the Pennsylvania Railroad Terminal, was the scene of one. Thieves ripped off a safe door in the offices of the Union News Company and made off with $2,300.

Equal daring was a safe robbery on a busy Bronx corner. Three unmasked armed men walked into the apartment of Max Krassler, a jeweler, bound and gagged a maid, drilled the safe and made off with $6,000 in currency and several hundred dollars in gold.

Jewelry worth more than $100,000 was taken in a raid on the safe of R. R. Fogel, a lower Broadway jeweler. The safe crackers entered the place by cutting a hole in the floor above. Early today crackmen opened the safe of the William Vauman Department Store in the Bronx and took $5,000.

Mob Attempts Lynching.
A mob of 200 attempted to lynch Edward Edwards, a negro street cleaner, when a policeman captured him on a Brooklyn street after he had struck down a fellow street cleaner, Philip Gorman, who later died. The policeman kept the mob at bay with a drawn pistol. A police riot squad effected the rescue.

Thomas A. Connors was shot in the jaw as he walked down Broadway in Long Island City. He did not know his mysterious assailant, who fired from across the street.

Two unmasked youths detached themselves from the crowds passing Max Goldberg's Brooklyn drug store, walked in with leveled guns, took $140 and walked out.

The Manhattan police took Owen Madden, notorious "Hells Kitchen" gang leader, and two of his pals to jail as perpetrators of a $10,000 whisky robbery yesterday.

SISTER SUPERIOR DIES

CLEVELAND, Dec. 4.—Sister Irene, aged 50, Sister Superior of Charity Hospital and a member of the Community of the Sisters of Charity for 35 years, died here tonight.

Dark Teeth Bleached In Three Minutes

You have always longed for flashing white teeth. And now, at last you can have them—easily, quickly and safely! For scientists have discovered a marvelous new treatment which in just three minutes bleaches the most dingy discolorations from the teeth, leaving them clear, sparkling white and lustrous. This new treatment, called Bleachedent Compound, consists of a wonderful new liquid and a new kind of paste. The liquid erodes and softens the stains, the paste removes them, and if used daily prevents the formation of future stains. You simply brush teeth with a few drops of the liquid—then use the paste. And as if by magic, all unsightly surface stains disappear and the teeth instantly take on a dazzling whiteness and lustre. First application leaves teeth whiter than when you awoke an hour by old-fashioned methods. Bleachedent Compound is harmless—cannot possibly affect dental profession. Especially beneficial for children's teeth which stain easily. Get Bleachedent Compound today for a few cents. Be sure you ask for Bleachedent Compound. At all good dealers, such as Stewart's and Hays True Store, Fisher & Strech Flood & Blake and Jones Pharmacy.—Advertisement.

Presbyterians Get Greetings From President Coolidge

CLEVELAND, Dec. 4.—Greetings from President Coolidge in which he expressed regret at his inability to attend the Presbyterian National conference, were read at the opening session of the gathering here Monday. Characterizing the scope of the church's activities as "particularly impressive," the President said that it was "gratifying to know of the remarkable progress that is being accomplished by a church which has always been so devoted to the broadest public and social interests."

The message was read by Moderator Charles E. Wishart of Wooster, O. Plans will be made during the four-day session for increasing the work which the church carries on, and for the apportionment among the 46 synods of a budget of $15,000,000 for the fiscal year beginning April 1, 1924.

No Sectarianism.
Sectarianism will not play a part in the conference, according to the Rev. William H. Foulke, general secretary of the Presbyterian National organization, under the auspices of which the sessions are being held. "There will not be a sectarian ward spoken at this conference," Dr. Foulke declared, pointing out that inter-church co-operation with various church unions as the ultimate goal, is the program to which leaders of the church are committed. Rev. Mr. Wishart and Mrs. Mahd Walker Willebrand, assistant secretary general of the United States, were chief speakers tonight.

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth Ohio.

Dear Dolly—I am a lonesome soldier boy and I would like all the nice girls of Portsmouth to write to me. I leave for Hawaii in about a month where I shall be stationed for a year. At present my address is: WAYNE ARMSTRONG, Reception Barracks, St. Louis, Mo.

Dear Miss Wise—My nephew of fifteen years of age wants me to send him some parts for his radio. As he lives away out West, I do not wish to get anything too heavy, and being unfamiliar with radios, would you please suggest a small part he would appreciate. Not knowing what parts he has, I think it would be unwise to suggest anything. Why don't you write and ask your nephew what he wants? Since he suggested that you get him a radio present, it would be perfect. It is right to ask him what he needs to complete his set. If you don't want to do this, drop into one of the local radio shops and ask them to show you the different parts and explain them to you. Then you can decide just what you could send without much trouble.

Dear Dolly—As I am going to have a Xmas party I would like for you to please tell me what would be nice to serve. Do you think fruit salad would be nice? And what games would be nice to play.

Fruit salad and wafers, or dairy sandwiches, coffee and candy, would be nice for refreshments. Various kinds of games and music should furnish enough amusement—for a jolly crowd of young folks. If you can't think of any games, yourself, perhaps your guests may be able to suggest something.

Miss Dolly Wise—I have been noticing items in the paper about the housing conditions. I think the renters ought to be made to lower their rents as wages are lower. I know a place of six rooms renting for $45 a month. Three rooms downstairs bring $22.00, and upstairs $22, and they are terrible. Paper torn off the walls and paint all off, and the landlady won't fix them up. Is there anybody to report such places to?

YOU'RE RESPECTFULLY, You might report your findings to the Industrial Housing Committee, care to Mr. Adam Frick, at the Chamber of Commerce, office Sixth street. Speaking of rents, I know quite a number of six room houses that are renting for $60 and upward. And, speaking of the paper, the tenants probably tore it off, as many of them do things like that.

Dear Dolly—What is your opinion of a young married lady that will take her two children to her mother's home and leave them for her mother to take care of and worry with, while she and her husband go to a picture show, or machine riding? Now her mother has a big family to look after and has to work so hard, and never gets to go anywhere, and on Sunday afternoons, when she could sit down and rest for a few minutes, here comes this daughter with her two mischievous children and leaves them for her mother to care for while she goes out joy-riding.

Now, Dolly, I think if this lady had any sympathy for her mother, she would take her children along and take care of them, or ask her mother to come and go along. Dolly, perhaps you think this is hard to believe, that a girl would mistreat her mother like this, but it is actually the truth. If I were her mother I would hit her a few things, wouldn't you?

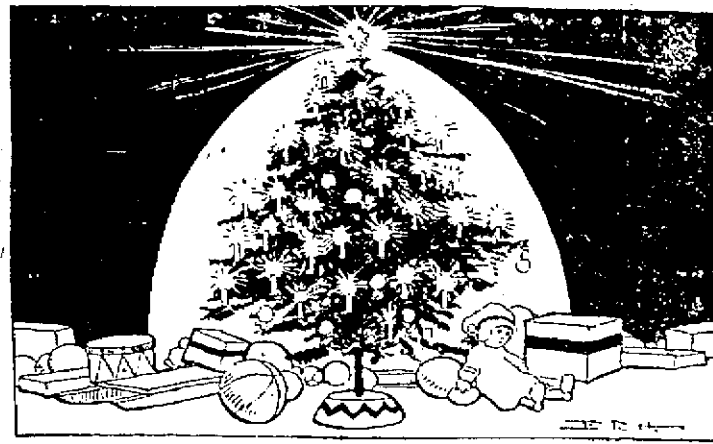

"BLUE EYES," I don't agree with you, when you say that this daughter is imposing upon her mother by leaving her two children with her. If she was doing anything like that, her mother would not hesitate to tell her so.

If she has a big family, surely some of them are large enough to take care of the younger children and I have never seen a grand-mother yet who was not tickled to pieces to have her grandchildren around. The aunts and uncles are also glad to have them, and I am sure they do not feel that they are being imposed upon if they are left there occasionally. Then, too, I think it is a fine thing on the part of the grandmother to keep the children so that her daughter can get out and enjoy herself once in awhile. However, I think that one good turn deserves another, and it would be a fine thing if this daughter would go and keep house for her mother occasionally and let her take an afternoon or evening off.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

by Olive Roberts Barton

A WONDERFUL TREE

"There was a tree that grew, dears, To quite a wondrous size."

THE next riddle that the Riddle Lady asked was a long one. I'm sure you never, never, never can guess what it was.

"There was a tree that grew, dears, To quite a wondrous size, Its branches spread quite wide below, But narrowed toward the skies."

"And on the tip-top twig of it— Their gleaming a gorgeous star That surely must have fallen from The dark blue sky afar."

"Its roots were deep in hiding Below the parlor floor, Its wide-spread branches covering Six mountain ranges or more."

"Not only were there tunnels And bridges, fields and brooks, But lakes made out of mirrors And hills made out of books."

"The beasts were quite amazing Beneath this sheltered world, For woolly lambs were grazing, While hungry tigers roared."

"And near the forest lion A velvet puppy sat, While out upon the briny deep A turtle chased a crab."

"And overhead what marvels Were waiting to be told! The tree bore silver sugar-plums And fruit of shining gold."

"And toys grew there thickly, From dolls to jumping-jacks, And soldier-suits and engines That ran on shiny tracks."

"A trumpet grew on one branch, A drum hung just below, And underneath a shiny sled Made tracks on cotton snow."

"This tree blooms just in winter, For one short single stay; I wish that we could find the seed And have one every day."

"We know! We know!" shouted all the Riddle Lady people. "It's a Christmas tree!"

"Well, well, well," laughed the Riddle Lady. "I supposed someone would guess it, but I didn't know that everybody would be so smart. That means that everybody in Riddle Land will have to have a prize."

"Nancy and Nick, will you please do an errand for me in your magic shoes? Go all day today, jump, run, and bring me a grab-bag full of wint'ry notes?"

"Certainly!" said the Twins obligingly, and away they went, and in a trice they came back with the wint'ry not bag.

Everybody dipped in and got a present and it was nearly as good as Christmas. At least that's what Canary Mary said, for she got a woolly lamb.

HAD BAD COUGH AND PAINS IN HER LUNGS

Well now, gaining weight and strength, does own work. Last September I took a heavy cold. I kept getting worse until finally I had pains in my bronchial tubes and all through my lungs. I had a bad cough, could not sleep at night, and as soon as I got up I felt that I had a sore throat. I consulted three different doctors and took their medicine, but did not get any better. I suffered nearly a hundred times. One day I told me I had a deep cold in my lungs. Another said I had bronchitis. I kept changing my medicine and burned me all over with electricity. I read in the paper about Milks Emulsion helping other people. So I bought a bottle of it. While I have not taken four small bottles, my lungs are not hurt any more. My cough is gone and I have gained 15 pounds. I am still gaining. I was able to do my first washing today that I have not since last September. In fact, I am doing my work with pleasure and like it. It is a dream that I have my health again. Mrs. Lida D. Schildt, 12 Congress St., Toledo, Ohio. Milks Emulsion restores healthy, natural bowel action; it is a truly effective medicine, doing away with all ailments and diseases. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive system in shape to assimilate food, and to build flesh and strength. Milks Emulsion is strongly recommended to those whose sickness has weakened; it is a powerful aid in resisting and removing the effects of wasting diseases, such as stomach trouble and constipation, and is promptly relieved. This is the only solid emulsion made, so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream. Wonderful for sick, weak children. No matter how severe your case, you are cured by this Milks Emulsion under its guarantee—Take six bottles before you see it according to directions and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. See one and $1.20 per bottle. The Milks Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind., or by druggists everywhere.

Mrs. E. G. Akers will entertain the members of the Jack Tar Club of Thursday afternoon at her home, 1301 Center street.

Physicians are prescribing and hospitals using a new and harmless, yet very powerful germicide that not only causes enlarged or varicose veins and bunions to become normal, but also reduces gonorrhea, enlarged glands and warts. Ask any first class druggist for an original two-ounce bottle of Moore's Emerald Oil (full strength) and refuse to accept any thing in its place. It is such a highly concentrated preparation that two ounces lasts a long time and furthermore it is this wonderful discovery does not produce the results and discomforts you can have the price refunded. It is not wise for anyone to allow swollen veins to keep on enlarging. Often they burst and cause weeks of pain, suffering and loss of employment. Start the Emerald Oil treatment as directed and advice and improvement will begin at once. Fisher & Streich Pharmacy—Advertisement.

SOCIETY

A delightful birthday dinner was given Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brecht of Long Street in honor of Mr. Brecht's 40th birthday anniversary. The day was spent in music and singing and social chat. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brecht and children, Helen, Emma, Ralph, and Louis; Mrs. Brecht's mother, Mrs. Louise Brecht; and sons, Gilbert and Leslie; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Brown and son Arnold; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bennett; all of Long Street; Mrs. White of Jackson, O.; Mr. Ralph Brown; Mrs. Brettie Williams; Mrs. Chas. Bremer and son Louis; all of Portsmouth.

HAD BAD COUGH AND PAINS IN HER LUNGS

Well now, gaining weight and strength; does own work. "Last September I took a heavy cold. I kept getting worse and finally I had pains in my bronchial tubes and all through my lungs. I had a bad cough, could not sleep at night, and was so sore through my lungs that I could hardly stand it. I consulted three different doctors and took their medicine, but did not get any better. I suffered death a hundred times. One doctor told me I had a deep cold in the walls of my lungs. Another said I had bronchitis. He kept changing his medicine and burned me all over with electricity. "I read in the paper about Milks Emulsion helping other people, so I bought it. I would try it. While I have only taken four small bottles, my lungs are not hurt me any more. My cough is gone and I have gained 4 pounds, and I am still gaining. I was able to do the first washing today that I have done since last September. In fact, I am now doing my work with pleasure and gladness." Mrs. Lida E. Schilts, 622 Congress St., Toledo, Ohio. "Milks Emulsion restores healthily, naturally, and action; it is a truly corrective medicine, doing away with all need of pills and physics. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food, and builds flesh and strength. Milks Emulsion is strongly recommended to those whom sickness has weakened; it is a powerful aid in resisting and repairing the effects of wasting diseases, chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved. This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream. Wonderful for weak, sickly children. No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milks Emulsion under this guarantee—Take six bottles home with you, use it according to directions and if not satisfied within the results, a money will be promptly refunded. Price 60c and $1.20 per bottle. The Milks Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. 840 by druggists everywhere.

Physicians are prescribing and hospitals using a new and harmless, yet very powerful germicide that not only causes enlarged or varicose veins and lumps to become normal, but also reduces boils, carbuncles, abscesses, and opens sores in a few days. Ask any first class druggist for an original two-ounce bottle of Moore's Emerald Oil (full strength) and refuse to accept any thing in its place. It is such a highly concentrated preparation that two ounces lasts a long time and furthermore if this wonderful discovery does not produce the results anticipated you can have the price refunded. HUNTINGTON TAKES STEPS TO BOOST PORTSMOUTH-SANDUSKY BARGE CANAL

The Huntington Advertiser, of local interest Monday, said:

The Huntington chamber of commerce will make a determined effort this week to have the government build a central riverway from Lake Erie to the Ohio river at Portsmouth. Such a route would make the great Ohio Valley easily accessible to virtually any kind of commerce from anywhere and the cities in this section served by the Ohio river would reap benefits incalculable.

The National Rivers and Harbors congress meets in Washington, D. C., Thursday for a two-day convention at which the chamber will have a delegation prepared to advocate the central riverway project.

H. E. Matthews, secretary of the chamber of commerce, has prepared a brief for the delegates, A. W. Montague and J. A. Huchey, setting forth the reasons for a central riverway and the untold advantages which would accrue from it to the Ohio Valley and all of the cities within its boundaries.

The move to have established a central riverway from Lake Erie to the Ohio river has been simmering for some time and it is claimed by its advocates to bring the matter to a head in as little time as possible.

The Great Lakes and Ohio River Waterways association constitute the individuals and organizations favoring the central riverway project, and they have declared themselves for a riverway using river channels, thereby conserving the floods and turning the streams themselves into public highways.

The Inter-City Rotary committee, consisting of members of the Rotary clubs of Portsmouth, Fronton, Ashland and Huntington, at its first meeting in Ashland, Ohio, last week, has taken steps to have a canal from Lake Erie to the Ohio river.

This project has been before congress and on March 2, 1919, a bill was passed by the house of representatives authorizing surveys of practicable routes for one or more barge canals between Lake Erie and the Ohio river.

The chamber of commerce delegation to the National Rivers and Harbors congress feels, however, that the best interests of the Ohio Valley would be served if a riverway were built in the central part of this territory which would be at Portsmouth, Mr. Matthews said.

The proposed central riverway would be a boon to manufacturers in the Ohio Valley, including Huntington and its numerous industries, in that it would greatly lighten the burden of transportation costs.

Under present plans the riverway would be a national highway, upon which any person may operate his own equipment. The rate for transportation would be largely of the individual's own making, subject probably to a trifling canal toll.

Coal landed at the piers along the Kanawha and Big Sandy rivers could be delivered in the original barges without transfer direct to the water fronts at Detroit, Toledo, Sandusky, Fremont, Tiffin, Marion, Columbus, Chillicothe and Chillicothe, at rates ranging from ten cents to fifty cents per ton cheaper than by rail. Tank boats loaded at the refineries in the oil fields could ply to all lake ports, greatly reducing transportation costs.

Dykeman Says He Asked for Resignation Of Roy Goodwin, Sponsored by Kearns

Coolidge Grants Craig Remission of Sentence

WASHINGTON, December 4.—(By the Associated Press)—President Coolidge's refusal to pardon Charles L. Craig, comptroller of New York City, while granting him a remission of the sixty days' sentence for contempt of court imposed by Federal Judge Mayer, is final, according to administration officials, regardless of whether he accepts the clemency or insists upon serving the term.

Attorney General Daugherty, in making the recommendation on which the president based his action, said Craig seemed "willing, if not desirous, to assume the attitude of a martyr."

He held, however, that the comptroller "justly deserves" the sentence and emphasized that his remission "should not be, in any sense, a vindication."

The attorney general found that, while the arguments in favor of a pardon presented by the New York board of appointment and estimate were "as unimpeachable and misleading as was the false, malicious and libelous attack of the defendant upon the court," the remission of sentence was advisable, among other reasons, because of the effect its execution might have on the financial affairs of New York City.

TOLEDO, O., December 4.—(By the Associated Press)—J. E. Dykeman, regional prohibition chief for Ohio, Indiana and Southern Michigan, announced today that it was he who asked Roy Goodwin, prohibition commissioner for the resignation of Roy Goodwin, a member of his department.

Dispatches from Washington say Goodwin will accept the resignation. This announcement came after the national commissioner conferred with Congressman Charles Kearns, Batavia, O., Goodwin's sponsor.

Dykeman said that although no direct charges had been filed against Goodwin he has been investigating rumors concerning him for some time.

"If they are true Goodwin has no place in the prohibition enforcement department," Dykeman said.

Goodwin, before being assigned to the local force, was active in Cincinnati. In numerous instances he is said to have used spectacular methods in raiding road houses and other places in Hamilton county where intoxicating liquors were sold.

CINCINNATI, O., December 4.—(By the Associated Press)—Roy Goodwin, U. S. general prohibition agent, whose resignation has been sought by his chief at Toledo, was in Cincinnati today to appear as a witness before the federal grand jury.

He expressed surprise, when told what action had been taken.

CHICAGO, Dec. 4.—(By the A. P.)—Selection of officials for 1924 Western Conference football game is to be taken out of the hands of the coaches and handled by a "Big Ten" committee, similar to the system by which major league baseball umpires receive assignments.

Prof. Ralph W. Alder of the University of Michigan and Prof. B. J. Lambert of the University of Iowa, together with Maj. John L. Griffith, commissioner of athletics, will form the committee to choose all the officials for all games instead of having them selected by the respective coaches as has been the custom.

The committee, Maj. Griffith said tonight, will meet here soon to draw up an approved list from the names submitted by conference athletic directors. From this list, which is expected to include 25 or 30 names, four officials for each game will be designated by the committee for the 1924 season.

WASHINGTON, December 4.—(By the Associated Press)—An exhaustive study of the records of various Arctic expeditions and other scientific data is to be started shortly by a special board of naval officers appointed to work out a detailed plan for a flight to the North Pole.

The project is the outgrowth of a suggestion made to Secretary Denby some months ago by Robert A. Bartlett, who sailed with Rear Admiral Byrd on the successful Polar expedition in the steamer Roanoke in 1918-1919.

Mr. Bartlett has been commissioned a lieutenant commander in the naval reserve force and called to active duty for his part in the work and will serve as recorder of the planning board, which is headed by Rear Admiral William A. Moffett, chief of naval aeronautics.

The board will determine whether the trip is to be made in the big navy dirigible Shenandoah or in airplanes equipped with skis, and outline all other arrangements for the flight. Admiral Moffett has repeatedly expressed the opinion that the Shenandoah could make the trip.

Many considerations, however, are involved in a decision to use the big dirigible. It would be necessary to erect at some "jumping off" point in the Far North a mooring mast for the Shenandoah to assure the safety of the vessel during her preparation for the Arctic flight. The possible effect of low temperatures on the helium gas with which the Shenandoah is inflated also must be determined definitely.

In her petition, Mrs. Shaw alleges extreme cruelty. The couple was married Jan. 27, 1913.

The plaintiff wife seeks a permanent injunction restraining her husband from assaulting her or from molesting her in any way at her residence, 403 1/2 Court street.

A temporary injunction has been allowed.

Mrs. Walker Files Suit

In her petition, plaintiff says they were married Nov. 25, 1903 and that in Oct. 1912, they assumed the care, custody, maintenance, education, and responsibility for raising of Alta F. Walker, aged 11 years.

Plaintiff charges her husband with assault, and abuse, and claims that she was compelled to seek refuge from the police on Dec. 2, last, when she avers he assaulted her.

Plaintiff says she and defendant are the joint owners of real estate located at 2224 Argonne Road.

Mrs. Walker asks for divorce, custody of the child, and an equitable division of their property.

COMMUNITY CHEST DRIVE OPENS FOLLOWING ENTHUSIASTIC RALLY

Optimism Running High
Among Hustling Teams;
Goal Set at $60,600

"Organized, all set, and ready to go," reported twenty-one teams at the luncheon at the Elks' club attended by more than 100 workers for the Community Chest campaign, which opened today. Enthusiasm, determination and optimism which defied the weather, prevailed throughout the meeting. "We're thoroughly organized and all that remains now is to go out and bring in the 'kale,'" said W. W. Anderson, of the Executive Committee.

Bursts of applause greeted H. B. Murray and R. W. Anderson who, as the "Nut Brothers," staged the demonstration sale. Mr. Murray is "Halt Nutt," presenting the arguments in favor of the Community Chest to Mr. Anderson, the "Hard Nutt," dubious about contributing.

One after the other Mr. Murray talked down the arguments. Anderson advanced against the chest. Answering the objection that the Holiday Home was not included in the funds from the chest, Mr. Murray said that the Home was invited to become a part of the Community Chest organization, but that the nation preferred to work independently. On the question of the debts which have been taken care of in the chest budget Mr. Murray explained that this money has been borrowed on rates guaranteed by a few individuals and that it is manifestly unfair for three or four men and women to be responsible for financing an organization such as the Bureau of Community Service which is of benefit to the entire citizenship, he said.

The budget commission will not name any individual bank as the depository for the $60,600 which is to be raised before Saturday, but will distribute the money proportionately among the several banks of the city.

Meeting the objection that the Chest is asking an amount equivalent to $1.50 per capita, Cleveland raised a chest of $1 per head; Columbus $2 per person; Hartford $2.50 per person, and Warren $3 per head.

"This is the season of the year for giving," concluded Mr. Murray. "Now is the time when the right Christmas spirit makes us want to share what we have with those less fortunate and make sure that at this festive season none are in want because nobody cared. Estimated the value of the time you would lose in interruption, if seven soldiers were to call on you and to that time you would spend as a soldier for various funds, and again the amounts you would give have your place." And Mr. "Hard Nutt" summed and signed his card.

There will be daily luncheons of the workers at the Elks during the campaign.

SPIRES CASE MAY GO TO THE JURY TOMORROW

WEST UNION, Ohio, December 4.—(Special to The Times).—Judging from the highway made in the John Spires trial this morning, the jury will get the case tomorrow. The jury was filled about to elect this morning and before court adjourned at 11:30 four witnesses for the state had been examined. Spires has been kept in solitary confinement.

Crime Proved Mystery

The crime with which Spires is charged proved a mystery for Adams and Scioto county authorities for weeks.

For days authorities endeavored to solve the mystery, and the first clue came when an automobile afterwards learned to belong to the dead man, was found in a garage in New Boston.

Working from this clue, officers from Adams county arrested Spires in Wilmington, where he was visiting at the home of a relative.

Upon being brought to West Union Spires made a confession in which he implicated two men, both from Portsmouth, one of whom he named as "Frank Moore" and the other as "Slim."

Through the efforts of Sheriff Harry M. Dunham of Scioto county and Deputy W. W. White of Adams county, Moore was arrested at Marietta, Ky. He denied guilt, but was identified by Spires and has been indicted.

Another local man was taken before Spires for identification, but the prisoner failed to identify the man as "Slim" who, Spires claimed, was in the party which planned the killing.

Sheriff Dunham and Deputy White continued the search and arrested Frank Jenkins, Portsmouth, who was brought before Spires. Spires claimed Jenkins was "Slim" and Jenkins has been indicted. Jenkins strenuously denies guilt and has retained Judge A. Z. Blair of Portsmouth to represent him.

Since his original "confession" Spires has made a number of statements. One was to the effect that the killing occurred in Scioto county, and that the body was taken to Adams county and buried.

Another was that Spires committed the crime himself, naming the other men in the hope that he would "get off with a lighter sentence."

The defense has not indicated what the nature of its testimony will be, or whom it will subpoena as witnesses.

He means are to be taken to remedy this condition in order for the firemen, policemen and city cops to receive their pay. Johnson Denies Guilt

Howard Johnson, 34 years old, colored, accused of holding up and robbing Miss Katherine Fisher of $2 last Saturday night, strenuously denied guilt when brought into Municipal court today and after hearing the stories of the complainant and defendant Judge McCall continued the case to give Johnson an opportunity to bring witnesses into court to testify in support of his statements that he was elsewhere at the time.

Miss Fisher testified that she was on her way to her home on North Chillicothe street shortly after 8 o'clock Saturday night when a colored man, whom she positively identified as Johnson, approached her near Fourteenth and Findlay streets and in a threatening manner demanded her money. She said she was frightened and handed over what money she had and then ran away for fear he would molest her further.

Johnson, who said he recently returned from Detroit, denied the charge and insisted it was a case of mistaken identity. He claimed that he was sick Saturday night and did not go to his home of a sister in the North End before 8 o'clock. Johnson is charged with petit larceny.

INTERESTING FIGURES ON FOOTBALL SEASON JUST ENDED

NEW YORK, December 4.—(By the Associated Press.)—The season's football scoring statistics for 100 leading colleges representing all sections of the country, reveal one of two things: either that defensive play has improved since 1922, or offensive play has become somewhat less effective.

The eleven of these institutions participated in 814 games and piled up a grand total of 12,684 points. This would make the average per team for the season approximately 15.6 points, as compared with the 13.2 of last year and would make the average per game 15.2 as compared with the 10 of one year ago. Further indications of the defense or lesser effectiveness of the offense may be seen in the actual records of leading teams.

Last year California, with a total of 393 points, was the high scoring team, and Cornell with 389, was in second place. This year Illinois, Notre Dame, and Stanford, although having scored ten points less than in 1922, lead the country with a total of 320.

Ranking second to Cornell this year is West Virginia with a point total of 296; University of Colorado, 281, with 280; Notre Dame, fourth, with 274; Holy Cross, fifth, with 270. Other colleges scoring more than 200 points including in order, Rutgers, Texas, Syracuse Army, Colgate, Yale, Virginia Military, Maryland, University of Washington and Dartmouth.

University of Kansas boasts the best defensive records. Its goal line was not crossed during the year, and but six points, the results of two field goals, were registered against it.

California, against which seven points were scored, a touchdown and the point following touchdown, is second on the defensive list; Michigan, which yielded 12 points; Boston College, which yielded 14 and Syracuse which yielded 19, follow in order.

Of the 814 games played, 44 resulted in ties, and of these, 19 wereless than 100 points in interest in this array was the 23-23 tie played by Colgate and Ohio State.

Nine games resulted in one point advantages to the winner. In each instance the winner scored the point following touchdown, while the loser failed in its attempt.

Says Navy Oil Would Have Suffered From Drainage

WASHINGTON, December 4.—(By the Associated Press.)—The navy would have suffered an ultimate loss of $225,000,000 barrels of oil through drainage and otherwise in its California reserves had these not been opened to operation under the present leasing policy, Edward L. Doherty, veteran oil operator, told the senate public lands committee yesterday as a witness in its investigation.

The oil promoter's testimony touched on plans of the Pan-American Petroleum Company, of which he is head, for development of the number one reserve, to which it holds a lease and a number of other subjects, including general conditions as to operation of California oil fields.

With $14,000,000 already invested under its lease, the Pan-American Company, Mr. Doherty said, expects to expend up to $50,000,000 in a few years in developing the field.

Still Talking About Proposed Incinerator

City Health Board in session yesterday afternoon briefly discussed the proposed installation of an incinerator as a solution of the garbage disposal problem and a formal resolution was adopted urging Council to get up action on the proposition, which, in the opinion of the board, should be put through without delay.

NOT GOING ANYWHERE

THE slender Republican majority in the senate, rendered more precarious by the farm bloc, will be used chiefly in the noble and heroic work of not getting anywhere.

As a rule it can be taken the majority will stand with the president on the major questions of the session. Two of these are no bonus bill and taking the special tax off of excess profits. President Coolidge may be expected to finally take a stand against the bonus as he already takes stand for repeal of the excess profits tax. It can be taken as a surety that there will be no bonus legislation and no affirmative action on excess taxes. The Republican majority and Coolidge can prevent the first and the Democratic minority, through the presence of the farm bloc and the Johnsons and Shipsteads, can prevent any favors to excess profits.

On the whole the Republicans are looking rather complacently at the situation regarding themselves as having rather the political advantage thereof as it will strengthen their position with big business to stifle bonus and they can explain to the populace that the troublesome Democrats and pesky farm bloc would not allow them a free hand to legislate for the benefit of the country.

Disturbing elements that will enter into the legislative work are the proposals to increase taxes on inheritances and wipe out all tax free securities. Already the government is plundering prudence and thrift, putting a penalty upon the natural instinct of the parent to provide for his own progeny, but strange to say there is a fool element in the country that isn't satisfied with this. It would make it a heinous crime for a man to lay aside anything for a rainy day, or to build some security for the widowed and the fatherless. And they call it progressivism, this highbidding of providence and love. Small wonder then that they would nullify the contract of the government and the state. Both have issued and sold their obligations on the covenant that they are free of all taxes. But that amounts to nothing with the new school of statesmanship, the solemn pact of government and state are as rapid and trifling as their own words.

Truly be we have fallen upon upon strange and evil days.

THE HIGH COST OF WAR

THE cost of war is not all in the loss of human life, the destruction of property and the cost of cannon and powder in war itself.

No small part of it is in the falling behind of military equipment through invention.

This is to be noted in the fact that the United States are offering to the highest bidder six perfectly sound battleships, on condition that they be scrapped shortly after purchase. Once these vessels, the Michigan, the Minnesota, the Kansas, the Vermont, the Delaware and the Nebraska were the pride of the navy. Each cost millions, but so far the government hasn't been able to get an offer for all six that equals one-tenth of the original cost of a single one. As merchandise they are worth only what the steel and the machinery in them will bring as scrap iron. No, not even that much, because the expense of scrapping has to be deducted before the buyer can begin to figure on a profit.

Just another specimen of our glorious winter climate.

Up around Steubenville they began work on "the river road," that is to stretch along the Ohio. Be a fine thing when one can drive from one side of the state to the other, without skipping a stitch, as it were.

Three Naval Aviators Killed

SAN DIEGO, CAL., Dec. 4.—(By the A. P.)—Three naval aviators were killed Monday when two airplanes collided at an altitude of about 1,000 feet at a point almost directly over the bridge between Coronado and North Island.

Thom's B. Entwistle, aviation chief machinist mate, 29, whose widow resides at Pensacola, Fla. Jackson and Entwistle flying about 50 miles an hour were nosing down preparatory to landing when Lieut. Byers swung along the same course. Both airplanes crashed and plunged downward in a spin.

EVERETT TRUE

BY CONDO

New York=Day=By=Day

BY O. O. MCINTIRE

Special Correspondent of the Times
NEW YORK CITY, December 4.—It was a surprise to all: from the train into this metropolis, after two days of desert, in an ancient horse drawn carriage, we drove to the hotel through wide avenues that very much resembled Paris.

It was early morning. Ladies and gentlemen in riding clothes flashed by on their mounts. You saw the fine houses and the park domes. Magnificent homes influenced by European architecture lined the thoroughfares. The bright sun dappled the asphalt through the trees.

At the Regis—where we stopped—the uniformed flunkies were as thick as they are in New York. The hotel is thoroughly modern in equipment. From the balcony window of our room one looks out over the capital. It rests in a huge bowl with mountains on all sides.

One could see the ancient tower of Popocatepetl with its snow-capped peak. The elevation is high, the air is light and one is inclined to giddiness until acclimated. There was something extremely home-like in a dark-erred senorita who announced, "Yes, we have no bananas" on her sutter, at her balcony window across the way.

Our first few hours were marked, however, by a household disturbance. My wife missed a ring. We had upset the running of a hotel in St. Louis sometime ago with a lost ring, which was later found where it had been placed. In the toe of a slipper—so we were wary.

Yet the ring could not be found. We called the waiter who served us breakfast, the bell boys who carried our luggage, and then the assistant manager and manager in turn. We were planning to call the police when the ring was found where it had been placed—in a jewel box in the trunk.

Mexico sees the American as an "easy mark" just as they do in Europe. Prices flare up automatically as the prices approach. The railroad porter exacted a peso for carrying bags to the carriage. For rendering the same service to a Mexican he would have been grateful for 20 centavos. A peso is fifty cents in American money and 20 centavos a dime.

After lunch Bill and I strolled out into the city. Automobile collisions here are frequent in the streets, which are very narrow. We saw three in a few blocks' walk, and each drew the same, curious, excited and gesticulating crowd one sees in France under similar provocation. The daily siesta was on and the shops were closed. This siesta lasts from about one until three and business suspends. Everybody takes a nap.

Ebe Martin

The worst draw back I havin' a reputation for bein' close mouthed is that so much is expected of us when we do cut loose. Of course, farmin' isn't what it might be, but folks that live out in the country ought to be glad they haven't stepped on discarded chowin' gum all the time.

Copyright National Newspaper Service

On the streets one sees the cosmopolitan sprinkling of Pleadings. Monkeys and spats, a tattered Moroccan prince, a Broadway actress carrying a Pom, a group of student Chicanos, ladies with canes, American tourists with kodaks, white-haired Texas cattle kings and, of course, the sandaled Mexican peon and the hooded barefoot women.

The cabarets and dancing places all advertise American performers. Most of the names were unknown to me, save one who is quite the rage. He was formerly an amputee in a second rate Eighth Avenue cabaret.

In a bar in the center of town we found that all Mexicans do not run to type. The bartender was as typical of the thousands one used to see in New York as could be imagined. His Auburn hair was closely cropped. His eyes blue and complexion fair. In appearance he was thoroughly Irish. We could scarcely believe he could not speak a word of English. Like all Mexicans, he smoked incessantly as he worked, and Bill pointed out that a Mexican never puts his cigarette down after lighting it. This bartender had an uncanny way of switching it from one hand to another while mixing drinks, preparing sandwiches and making change. Bell boys enter the room to answer calls smoking, as do the waiters serving meals. Hotel clerks and clerks in stores smoke while waiting on you—and all follow the Mexican custom of never lighting the cigarette down.

Doc Koko's KOLUM

Afterthought
Man dwells apart, though not alone.
He walks among his peers unread:
The best of thoughts which he hath known
For lack of listeners are not said.

Yet dreaming on earth's clustered isles,
He saith, "They dwell not lone like I."
Forgetful that their sunbeaked smiles
Flash far beyond each other's ken.

He looks on God's eternal suns,
That sprinkle the celestial blue,
And saith, "Ah! happy shining ones,
I would that men were grouped like you."

Yet this is sure: The loveliest star
That clustered with its peers we see,
Only because from us so far
Doth near its fellows seem to be.

—Jean Ingelow.

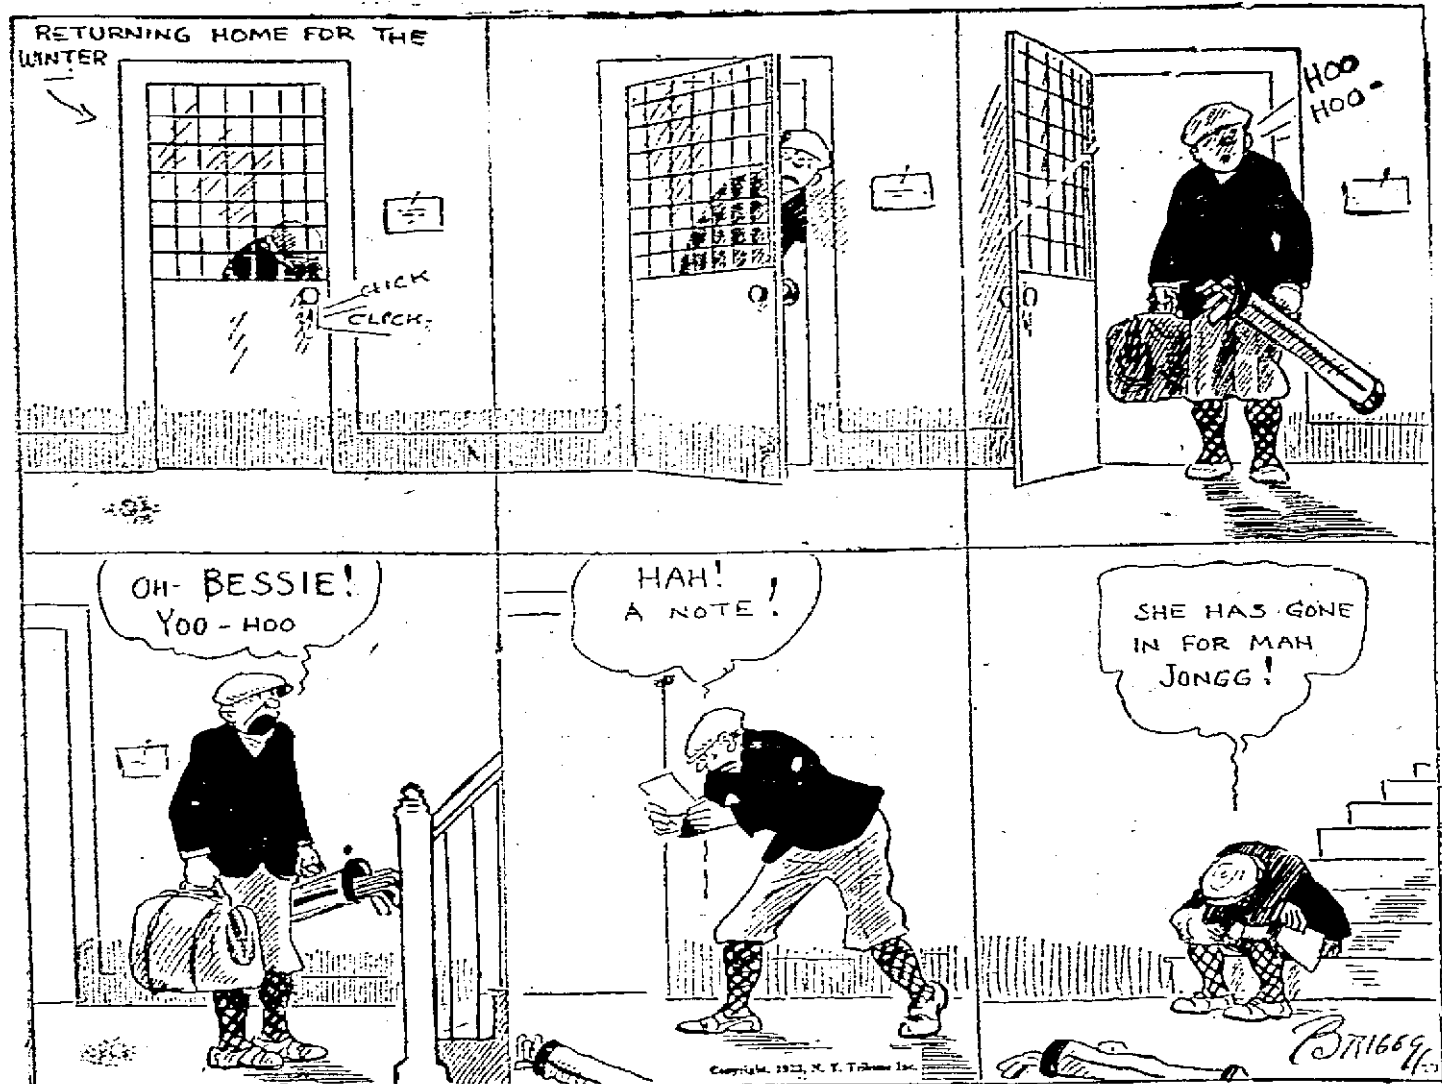

Had No Chance
Said a stranger to another who had just given his seat to a lady:
"Good luck, sir, I've been traveling on this line for three years, and I've never offered my seat to a lady."
"Then you're never had any manners, sir," was the reply.
"No, it isn't that; I've never had a seat,"—Judge.

Perplexing
The admiral had frequently requested his wife not to hang her laundry in the rigging. But, womanlike, she persisted. So one morning he escorted her on deck and pointed out that telescopes were leveled on the flagship from six different directions. The lady was indignant.
"Your officers," she declared, "are impertinent."
"Not at all, my dear," said the admiral. "They just can't read my signals."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

BERTON BRALEY'S DAILY POEM

Perfectly Clear

(By Berton Braley)

If you have seen a glibberdin
Cartwheeling on the green,
With seven feathers on each fin
And nothing in between;
If you have watched him dance a waltz
With thumb-tacks in each shoe,
You're bound to understand his faults
When they're explained to you.

Why does he sit in thorny spots,
And every now and then
Proceed to tie himself in knots?
He can't untie again?
Why is his form contained within
A tin can on a shelf?
Because the wild, wild glibberdin
Cannot contain himself.

If you have watched the glibberdin,
You'll very clearly see
Why dark green whiskers on his chin
Do not appeal to me.
For dark green whiskers will not bleach.
Except in alcohol.
And thus the glibberdin can teach
A lesson to us all.
